

MARYLAND

1 Helping Up Mission Helping Up Mission provides hope to the poor and homeless. We do this through programs designed to meet their individual physical, psychological, social and spiritual needs.

(410) 675-7500, <http://www.helpingupmission.org/>, outreach@helpingup.org

Helping Up Mission, 1029 East Baltimore St., Baltimore, MD 21202

2 MD Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services The Reentry Program is staffed by an RMT who provides services to parolees at the Community Reentry Facility (REF) in Baltimore.

(410) 339-3400, <http://www.dpscs.state.md.us/rehabservs/patx/reentry.shtml>, patuxent@dpscs.state.md.us

Patuxent Institution, 7555 Waterloo Rd., Jessup, MD 20794

3 F.A.C.E. - Freedom Advocates Celebrating Ex-Offenders F.A.C.E. (Freedom Advocates Celebrating Ex-Offenders) is a group of people who have come together to support one another and reach out to others who have experienced conditions of substance abuse and/or incarceration.

(410) 522-3223, <http://facebaltimore.org/>, info@facebaltimore.org

F.A.C.E., 1564 Sheffield Rd., Baltimore, MD 21211

4 SEETTS \(Supporting Ex-Offenders in Employment, Training, and Transitional Services\) SEETTS offers training and support for ex-offenders in search of work opportunities.

(410) 837-1800, <http://www.goodwillches.org/>, Ccostley-harvin@goodwillches.org

Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake, Inc., 222 East Redwood St., Baltimore, MD 21202

5 St. Vincent de Paul of Baltimore St. Vincent de Paul of Baltimore is a leading provider of community services to people suffering from the effects of hunger, homelessness, and poverty in Baltimore, Maryland.

(410) 662-0500, <http://www.vincentbaltimore.org/>, info@vincentbaltimore.org

St. Vincent de Paul of Baltimore, 2305 N. Charles St., Ste .300, Baltimore, MD 21218

CEA, 8182 Lark Brown Rd., Ste. 102, Elkridge, MD 21075

6 National Fatherhood Initiative Our mission is to improve the well-being of children by increasing the proportion of children growing up with involved, responsible, and committed fathers.

(301) 948-0599, <http://www.fatherhood.org/>, info@fatherhood.org

National Fatherhood Initiative, 20410 Observation Dr., Ste. 107, Germantown, MD 20876

7 Baltimore Responsible Fatherhood Project \(BRFP\) The Baltimore Responsible Fatherhood Project (BRFP) is an outgrowth of the Center for Urban Families' twenty-two year-old Men's Services program, serving Baltimore's low-income fathers and communities. The key components of the BRFP are intense case management, father-child activities and weekly fatherhood group sessions.

(410) 367-5691, <http://www.cfuf.org/Home/>, vwallace@cfuf.org

Center for Urban Families (CFUF), 2201 North Monroe St., Baltimore, MD 21217

MARYLAND (CONT.)

8 Jericho Reentry Program Jericho is a one-year reentry program serving up to 250 formerly-incarcerated men, between the ages of 18 and 65, per year. The program assists previously incarcerated men who have recently been released reestablish themselves in their communities. Clients are primarily from East Baltimore, and may not have a sexual offense on record.

(410) 467-1264, <http://www.ecsm.org/>, info@ecsm.org

Episcopal Community Services of Maryland, 1014 W. 36th St., Baltimore, MD 21211

9 Power Inside Re-Entry and Aftercare Women returning to the community from prison and jail face overwhelming barriers. Lack of housing, drug treatment, employment and medical services makes community reentry extremely difficult. Through our case management we work with individual women to address their anticipated and realized needs while they are incarcerated and provide a continuum of care as they rebuild their lives after release.

(410) 889-8333, <http://powerinside.org/>, contact@powerinside.org

Power Inside, P.O. Box 4796, Baltimore, MD 21211

10 Volunteers of America Chesapeake's Residential Re-Entry Center Volunteers of America Chesapeake's Residential Re-Entry Center, located in Baltimore City, MD, has assisted men and women in making a successful transition from prison to the community through pre-release and work-release programs for more than 30 years.

(410) 276-5880, <http://www.voachesapeake.org/rre>, jmasslieno@voaches.org

Volunteers of America Chesapeake's Residential Re-Entry Center, 4601 E. Monument St., Baltimore, MD 21205

11 Witness House of Hope Through establishment of our Christian transitional living and recovery center, newly released ex-offenders discover help, hope, and healing and are better prepared to live and work in the community as productive and responsible citizens.

(410) 749-1343, <http://www.witnessinternational.org/>, witnessinternationalinc@yahoo.com

Witness International, Inc., P.O. Box 2797, Salisbury, MD 21802

12 Reducing Barriers to Housing and Employment Imposed By Criminal Records Recognizing that experience with the criminal justice system poses a significant barrier to the ability of homeless people to access and that work and a home contribute to lower recidivism rates, HPRP launched a project to eliminate restrictions on employment and housing for certain persons with criminal records by representing homeless people in proceedings to expunge records of charges that result in non-conviction (eg. where the prosecutor refuses to prosecute), advocating for expansion of statutory eligibility for expungement, and urging housing providers and employers to provide access.

(410) 685-6589, <http://www.hprplaw.org/>, info@hprplaw.org

Homeless Persons Representation Project, Inc., 201 N. Charles St., Ste. 1104, Baltimore MD 21201

13 Opening Doors Gender specific, culturally and linguistically competent housing program for newly released from incarceration homeless women. An integrated service delivery model for housing that includes three models for change and care "No Wrong Door", "Living in Balance" and "Housing First."

MARYLAND (CONT.)

(410) 878-0357, <http://www.womenacceptingresponsibility.org/>,
khutchinson@womenacceptingresponsibility.org

Women Accepting Responsibility, Inc., 2200 Garrison Blvd., 2nd Fl., Baltimore, MD 21216

14 The Men's Center Re-Entry Program We provide holistic services that assist newly released and formerly incarcerated men, women, and youth in helping them successfully transition back into their communities once they are released. We also provide services for both the families and the incarcerated individuals that focus strongly on life skills and connecting these individuals to resources and opportunities to prevent recidivism. We also refer and work with them to secure safe and drug-free housing, and employment, while also connecting them to supportive and healthcare services.

(410) 614-5353, <http://www.menandfamiliescenter.org/>, menandfamiliescenter@gmail.com

Men and Families Center, Inc., 2222 Jefferson St., Baltimore, MD 21205

15 Druid Heights Community Development Corporation \(DHCDC\) ReEntry Program Our re-entry program focuses on ex-offenders that are just released from prison; we provide case management and biweekly men's rap and women's rap sessions. Our overall goals are to develop reliable assessment instruments to identify the risks and needs of offenders, and to link the results of those assessments to specific and individualized case plans for offenders.

(410) 523-1350, Ext . 230, <http://druidheights.com/>, afisher@druidheights.com

Druid Heights CDC, 2140 McCulloh St., Baltimore, MD 21217