

DELAWARE

1. Delaware Center for Justice The Delaware Center for Justice, Inc. is the leading non-profit organization in Delaware committed to transforming the quality of justice through advocacy, policy, and practice.
What began as the Prisoner's Aid Society in 1920 has evolved into an organization that currently serves both adults and youth who are justice-involved – transforming the delivery of justice in Delaware and implementing programs that facilitate fresh starts for victims of crime, youth at risk, and the incarcerated. We are a diverse staff with one vision – to continue the legacy of making a difference in Delaware.

6. Sojourners' Place Re-Entry Services Re-entry services is an approach for successful integration for our residents. We work with Delaware Department of Correction, Probation and Parole, the Department of Labor, Department of Health and Social Services, the Department of Education, Sojourners' Place, and the Reentry participant.

The Reentry Team at Sojourners' Place works directly with each ex-offender to coordinate the transition plan of each person to ensure the appropriate services and supports are available and accessed post release. Transition plans are monitored and progress reports are maintained for each participant to monitor progress made and to identify any barriers, gaps, and resources.

7. Delaware Department of Education's \(DE DOE's\) Prison Education Program The mission of Prison Education is to offer a quality adult education program that will provide an educational foundation to enable offenders to be productive workers, family members, and citizens while incarcerated and upon release from prison.

Through this program, offenders are provided with a variety of educational offerings focused on academics, vocational training and life skills for successful re-entry back into their communities upon release.

10. Bridge to Victory! at the Prison Outreach of Delaware Prison Outreach of Delaware has ministered to inmates since 1963 by preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and serving as chaplains and volunteers in our prisons here in Delaware. Our Bridge to Victory Aftercare Ministry is a vital piece of the puzzle in helping ex-offenders live for Christ and become disciples leading to a life of victory. The Bridge to Victory Aftercare Ministry continues with training that began behind the bars. We help the offender by mentoring and making them accountable as they go through the difficult stages of re-entry.

12. Pacem in Terris \(Latin for “Peace on Earth”\): Pacem/Baylor Art Project Life Changing and Liberating. One of the Restorative Justice initiatives of Pacem in Terris is its Pacem/Baylor Art Project. It is the successor to the decade-long Baylor Dance Project that Pacem has run for inmates at Baylor Women’s Correctional Institution. Thanks to funding from the Delaware Division of the Arts, the Episcopal Church of Sts. Andrew and Matthew, and some private donors, the dance classes and program were a vital part of Baylor’s various educational programs. Because the dance programs are no longer possible because of space limitations at the facility, Pacem has evolved that uplifting and inspiring program to the Pacem/Baylor Art Project.
